CLASS PROPHECY FOR '52

Well, folks, here we are at the World's Fair, August 21, 1970. It's a beeuuiful day in Chicago today. As I stand here viewing the crowd; I see hundreds of people--people from every walk of life: tall ones, short ones, fat ones, thin ones, yes; folks, all kinds of people!

We're going to be interviewing some of these folks today and here's our first one,--a very....distinguished looking fellow coming down the street to our stand. Your name, sir? "Maynard Albert DeBoer". And what's your occupation? . . . What's that? You are now perfecting a cure for red hair? . . . A scientist, eh? Best of luck to you in your outstanding experiment. Now, who is this attractive young lady coming down the street? ... "Marylis Philby--I'm featured as a tightrope walker at the Fair this week." Oh, I see; and do you find your work interesting? "Yes, and exciting, too--I practice my act when I'm walking in my sleep!" Odd--but fascinating.And here's a shoe shine boy . . . what's your name, fella? Douglas "Rise an' Shine" Schneider? Well, well . . . and how's business? Slow progress makin' a million, eh? Ho, I'd think it would be. There's a young lady coming around the corner. Hello, ma'am, are you a housewife? "Oh, no, sir, I've been too interested in my writings. I've just completed a new dictionary." And what are you calling your publication, lady? "M. J. Idso's Unabridged Dictionary for the Absent-Minded." Fine!Who is this pert-looking lady meeting us? Arlene J. Nieuwenhuis? So, you are the leader of the band at the University of Archer, Miss Nieuwenhuis. Congratulations and good luck in your future directing! A fine looking gentleman is approaching our microphone....let's find out a little about him. Could you tell us your Name, Sir? "Rev. Bernard Nathan Rohwer." Ah, yes--a minister, I take it...and where do you serve, Rev. Rohwer? "I have a 10-point circuit in Del Rio, Texas--where I also conduct a weekly radio program, preaching on "The Ill Effects of Smoke and Drink". Thank you, sir; glad you could be at the fair today.  A strong-appearing woman is creating a disturbance across the way. We'll bring the mike over there and see what it's all about. Excuse me,--lady, would you tell us your name, please? "Sadie Te Paske, waddaya wanna know for?" Just curious--..a, what do you do for a living? "Been wrestlin'.... that's how I take in most of my dough; whassit ta you?" Have you been successful as a wrestler? "Natchurally." I see, well, thank you, lady.  Here comes an intelligent looking woman. She's wearing a pin which tells us that she's the Editor of the New York Times. Your name is Arlin Harms? Uh, huh...come around later--and we can give you a scoop for your paper.

Look at this tough character strutting down the street. What's that you say? Five hundred mile trophy at the Indianapolis Auto Races--you got that? Well, my dear sir, Congratulations! Yes, ladies and gentlemen, we've just talked with Gerald Portz, a "winnder" at the races, said his inspiration for racing came to him in High School back in the early '50's. Particularly inspiring to him were the racing antics of R. E. Evenson, a classmate of his.  Queer, isn't it; that at the name of Evenson, a fellow comes running up to our corner pushing an empty kiddy car! Well, fellow--what is your name? "Richard A. Evenson, of the Evenson Mfg. Co." And what is your product? Kiddy Cars--both stationary and movable? How very interesting! Here comes a lady who looks like she's a friend to all children. Your name is Marlene DeBoom; what you do? "I'm advisor and custodian of an orphanage in Missouri." Keep up the good work, Miss De Boom. A very neatly dressed and be-jeweled lady is approaching us. What is your name, Madam? "Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.--formerly Edith Dykstra." Pleased to meet you, Mrs. Rockefeller, greet your husband John for us. Here comes a poet who don't know it; but you can tell by the feet --- they're long fellows. (Oldie, isn't it?) -- How do you do? "Fine, thank you." What do you do? "I'm a poetess." My, goodness, what's the name? "Marlys Idso." Ah, yes,-- we do have the privilege of meeting all sorts of people here in Chicago. Goodness, look at this man wobbling down this way. Hello, sir, who are you, anyway? "Vernon "Blubber and Tallow" Nieuwenhuis." --and what is your occupation, sir--or is that an embarrassing question--you needn't answer if you don't do any work. "Certainly I work--I'm a famed radio star with my own program--"The Fatter Man". "When they make larger screens, I also expect to appear on television." And our good wishes go with you, Mr. Nieuwenhuis for a most successful career.

Well, folks, that's all the time we have--we might at this point inform you that this has been the "Class of '52 Review at the World's Fair in Chicago, and today we were delighted to meet the class from Archer, Iowa. We wish them, each and every one, success in the years to come, and much happiness."

CLASS HISTORY

1952

In the fall of 1939 the primary room at Archer was rampaged by eleven newcomers who were about to begin an educational journey. Their engineer, who met them at the station, was Miss Obele (now Mrs. Joe Harms), who guided them until the first mile of the journey was completed. The passengers were: Norma Egdorf, Rosemary Skipper, Frances Noteboom, Arlin Harms, Edith Dykstra, Arlene Nieuwenhuis, Marlys Idso, Carlyle Johnson, Richard Evenson, Benny Rohwer, and Marlene Idso. After learning the essential elements of knowledge needed for a trip such as this we made our first stop and were greeted by our new conductor, Miss Richardson. The same passengers boarded and during this next year we gained two new travelling companions, who were Sadie Te Paske and Marlys Koepnick, coming from a country school. In March of '41 Rosemary Skipper left us for another station.

Our taxicab driver meeting us at the succeeding station to make us acquainted with our new locality, was Miss Den Hartog. As we turned the corner and saw the sign 2nd and 3rd grade, we realized that the 3rd mile of the journey had begun. Under the patient supervision of Miss Den Hartog we explored new fields of readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic. During the course of this mile another passenger, Norma Egdorf, left and the travellers still numbered 11.

Miss Den Hartog stayed with us the next year, this phase of the journey taking us through 3rd grade. At the start of the year new acquaintances were made. The Vanden Brink sisters, Elma and Faye, bought tickets for this fourth mile, increasing the no. of passengers to 13. Extra-curricular activity for the year for some students was chicken-pox. Evidently Frances Noteboom had had enough for she left us near the end of the year.

Once again the setting is changed and we advanced to the next "car" labeled "4th and 5th Grade". There, at the door, to greet us, was Mrs. Williams. There was quite a bit of excitement for us this year. Among our activities there was a program for the mothers. It was presented in the spring, in honor of Mother's Day, and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Class History, con't.

Another special feature of the year was a train ride to Sheldon. Both 4th and 5th grades went along, with our teacher and some of the mothers acting as chaperones. An excess amount of steam was freed upon our decension from the train and for 1 solid day 25 kids romped around Sheldon, wide-eyed at the wonders of the soy bean mill, dairy, bakery, Sheldon Mail Office, and the dime store. A new face appearing on the scene in March of our 5th mile of travel was Marlene De Boom, who came from Aurelia. Henry Minton, a vague memory in the minds of most of us, came and went like a cloud in the summer sky. Carlyle Johnson's family moved in March of this year and so did he, leaving 2 helpless boys, Dick and Benny, as prey to ten 4th-grade girls!

The next fall brought no changes in the list of passengers nor did we have a new conductor. Dark clouds were seen on this mile which turned out to be little red spots, now commonly known as measles. The cloud passed, and eventually everyone returned to hard labor. Upon this course of the journey a sewing club was formed by the 5th grade girls, and a...? handicraft club by the boys. Results of this artistic experiment were exhibited in the spring of the year.

Then another change of scene took place. Miss McNutt took on the burdensome task of directing us in the right paths of knowledge. Maurice Morales, a new companion on this our 7th mile of educational exploration, joined us to increase our enrollment to 13. At the termination of the year another fluctuation took place in our list of travellers. Elma and Faye Vanden Brink left, decreasing our number to 11. An accomplishment of the 6th grade year was the organization of the Audubon Bird Club for which membership we received pins upon which were painted colorful birds.

As once more we boarded our moving vehicle of education, our travelling guide was again Miss McNutt. Included in our field of entertainment this year was an operetta, entitled, "Farmer in the Dell", which was well presented by the grades. This proved to be a lot of fun for all of us. The variation which took place concerning those aboard were Roger Crosbie, Marylis Philby, and Vernon Nieuwenhuis, who carried in their luggages of knowledge, and were directed to the car marked "7th Grade". We've neglected to mention that "Pancho", whose given name was Maurice Morales, left. Now we numbered a wholesome, lively, intelligent 13.

Class History, con't.

"ALL ABOARD"--was the call we heard in the fall of '47 and when we glanced into the direction from whence it came we saw Mrs. Maxson whom we discovered to be our new travelling guide for 8th grade. Carlyle Johnson, during this road of new experience,...joined us again along with Douglas Schneider, increasing our number to 15. This year we were saddened by the death of our instructor, Mrs. Maxson. In the absence of her guidance several substitute teachers reckoned with us for the 9th mile of the way. They were; Mrs. Millard Morfitt, Miss Melva Tiemens, and Mrs. Dillavou. Upon arriving at the 9th milestone we received the very distinguished title of Eighth Grade Graduates.

Now we were about to embark on our luxury liner which was christened the AHS and promised an exciting and adventurous voyage. Looking at the ship's schedule the names of passengers aboard appeared as follows:

Crosbie, Roger	Koepnick, Marlys
De Boer, Maynard	Nieuwenhuis, Arlene
De Boom, Marlene	Nieuwenhuis, Vernon
Dykstra, Edith	Philby, Marylis
Evenson, Richard	Rohwer, Benny
Harms, Arlin	Schneider, Douglas
Idso, Marlene	Te Paske, Sadie
Idso, Marlys

Shortly after the anchor was up the horn blasted and we were off! Ship's captain was Supt. Ivan Maxson; Assistant Officers were: Mrs. John Campbell, Mr. H. W. Matzdorff, Mrs. McCrill, and Mr. Dale Kuhns. Our initiation, coming shortly after, helped give us a good send-off on our voyage. During the trip, Roger Crosbie said good-bye to us to continue his voyage on the G.H.S. (GAZA HIGH SCHOOL) liner.

At the end of this year we were all quite well acquainted with the most important manipulations of the AHS, but there was still a lot to learn.

As the 11th league of travel commenced we were under the sponsorship of Mr. Matzdorff. We initiated the Freshmen and gave them what they called a rough time. A change in captains took place and Mr. L. N. Jensen occupied the place at the helm. It was during this course of sailing that we had part in presenting the operetta, "Belle of Baghdad", under the direction of Mr. Kuhns. In March of 1950 another fellow joined our crew who answered to the name of Gerald Portz.

Class History, con't.

Our trip progressed with 15 strong for the year of '50 and '51. By this time we had become mature enough to wear $16 rings to signify that we were Junior Mates on the AHS LINER.

One highlight of the year was the Junior Class Play "Peck's Bad Boy", directed by Mrs. Jensen. It was our privilege to give our play in the new gymnasium to a capacity crowd on the evening of the dedication of our new building. This was a memorable night in many ways.

Mid-way in the year one of our mates took sea sick with rheumatic fever and missed out on 9 weeks of the voyage. We missed Edith and were sorry she could not be with us during this part of our school experience.

"Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" was the theme for our Junior-Senior Banquet which we Juniors so industriously prepared.

There were changes, at the beginning of our Junior year, in the officials of the AHS. Mr. Kuhns did not return, but Mr. Ray Stolaas came as music director. He stayed for two weeks, heard the call of Uncle Sam and had to abandon ship. We were sorry to see Mr. Stolaas go, but did not want to dispute with the draft board. The vacant place, however, was very efficiently filled by Miss Arlene Dornbusch. Her direction helped give us a first rating in band at state and several other good ratings. As a whole, this was a very successful phase of the excursion. The next cry we heard was, "All ashore that's going ashore!".

And then, ALL ABOARD, SENIORS OF '52! Our trans-educational plane was right on time Sept. 3, 1951 and 14 of the previous 15 Juniors boarded, preparing to climax this journey of which we have been speaking. The decrease from 15 to 14 members was due to the fact that Marlys Koepnick was influenced by Cupid and married in the summer previous to our Senior year.

Thus, we began our Senior year, appreciating some of the advantages that Seniors are granted. Last fall we all enjoyed a trip to Sioux City to have our pictures taken and see whether or not the photographer could flatter us. He did. After a half-day of photography we toured Morningside College, the Police Dep't, and the Good-Will Industries Mission.

Class History, concluded:

In December we acted as hosts and hostesses at the High School Christmas party. Our next major activity was the Senior Class Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay", under the very able direction of Mrs. Coates and Miss Bogaard.

At present we are looking forward to Skip Day, Baccalaureate Services and Commencement. And now, with less than two weeks of school left, this journey is nearly complete. Our pilot is speculating a landing and soon we'll have our feet on the ground. This time it will be different, though, we'll have to stand up for ourselves; cannot depend wholly on travelling guides. No teacher can make our decisions for us--there will be no instructor to whom we can take our problems. This journey of all journeys will soon be at an end and never can we make such a trip again. But as we look back over the 13 years that have just passed, remembering the new paths travelled, roads which were sometimes rough, and the pleasant by-ways, we know that this experience will live in each of our hearts and benefit us in the future. Now we'll each board different planes and go our separate ways. Yet, this we have in common: the Memories -- and . . . the title, "Graduate of AHS in '52".

TRAFFIC TALES

(Shock) - Officer - "Explain how you came to knock this man down."

Richard - "I never touched him, Officer, I just stopped my car to let him across . . . and he fainted."

Maryliss: "Am I driving too fast?"

Marv: "Either that, or you're flying too low."

Glancing into the future - 1970

A policeman stopped a driver to tell him that he had no taillight. Douglas S. got out of his car, took one look, and turned pale.

The policeman assured him his offence was not that bad. Still the motorist appeared shaken by his experience.

"There is no taillight," Doug admitted. "But neither is there a trailer with my wife and family in it!"

CLASS WILL OF 1952 GRADUATES

We, the Senior Class of '52 do make our last will as follows:

We devise and bequeath to the class of '53 the desks on the north side of the assembly and any items left in them, plus the honored title, "Seniors".

Individually we do give and bequeath as follows:

- I. I, Edith Dykstra, do give and bequeath my appetite to Lila, my dark hair to Ronald S., any junk lying around to anybody who wants it, and my best wishes to the Seniors of '53.
- II. I, Gerald Portz, do give and bequeath my ability to play ping pong to Keith Verburg, my getting along with teachers to Jens, my willingness to do as directed to Keith Smithers, the pleasure of putting on a play to the Seniors of '53, and anything remaining to anyone who needs it or whoever wants it.
- III. I, Arlene Nieuwenhuis, do give and bequeath my interest in basketball to Marge, my baton to Norman Philby, my strutting technique to Larry Krauss, my freckles to George Blankers, my hiking experience to Gloria, my good times in highschool to La Verna, and my best wishes for success to the class of '53.
- IV. I, Marlene De Boom, do give and bequeath my faded jeans to Larry M., my "poodle" hair style to Lila, all my girl friends to Keith V., all my bookkeeping papers to anyone who finds them useful, and the best of luck to the friendly Seniors of '53.
- V. I, Douglas Schneider, do give and bequeath any boogy bears that are found to Marge, all spare Ford parts to Jens, my ability to behave in the assembly to Larry K., and best wishes to the class of '53.
- VI. I, Maryliss Philby, do give and bequeath my giggle to Gloria, my cheerleading sweater to Marge, all my long finger nails to Kathleen, my height to Marv, my front seat in the assembly to Ray P., my ability to swim without water to anyone who doesn't know how, and all my good times in high-school to the class of 1953.

Class Will, con't.

- VII. I, Richard Evenson, do give and bequeath my ability to pay attention in class to Keith S., my ability to hang junk on my car to Squeek, and all the rest of my natural abilities to Robert B.
- VIII. I, Marlys Idso, do give and bequeath my driving abilities to Karen, my interest in sports to Jean, all lost 2nd clarinet music to Lois, my weight to Larry K., and the wonderful times entitled to Seniors to the class of 1953.
- IX. I, Vernon Nieuwenhuis, do give and bequeath my ability to keep my car clean to Wayne, my ability to stay in school without getting kicked out to George B., and all my other natural talents to anybody that wants them.
- X. I, Sadie Te Paske, do give and bequeath my blond hair to Ray Portz, my ability to talk in class to Lila, my ability to get along with the Storms to Jeanette Rolfes, my bookkeeping papers to Audrey Koepnick, anything left in the school house to Charlie, and my best wishes for a happy Senior year to the Juniors.
- XI. I, Maynard De Boer, do give and bequeath my front seat to Jens, my ability to play the trumpet to Claire, my red hair to Joan, and my old green ford to Bob T.
- XII. I, Marlene Idso, do give and bequeath my gift of gab during school time without permission to Evelyn R., my blue notes in band to Claire D., my freakish nickname to Fuzzy, my ability for day-dreaming to Bob T., my cheerleading experiences to Ronnie Storms, my best wishes to the basketball team and cheerleaders for a successful season in '52 and '53 and the same to the Graduates of '53.
- XIII. I, Benny Rohwer, do give and bequeath my will-power for getting home early at night to Wayne, my unfinished arguments to Bob, my typewriting abilities to Evalina, and my enjoyment of Gov't. classes to Claire D.

Class Will, concluded:

XIV. I, Arlin Harms, do give and bequeath my junky desk to Larry Krauss, my freckles to Karen, my mischievous character to Mary Ann, my sneezing to Keith S., my bookkeeping grades to anybody dumb enough to accept them, my liking for raw cabbage and carrots to Marv, and all the good times and unforgettable moments of good 'ole AHS to the class of '53.

In witness where of our foregoing instrument has been signed and sealed by the said Senior Class of '52 at Archer, Iowa on May 6, 1952.

PASSED BY THE NON-SENSOR

Archer Citizen - "Look here, boy, what are you doing in my melon patch?"

Norman V. - "I'm so glad you came--one of your melons broke loose, and I can't seem to find how to fasten it on again."

Maynard, describing an encounter with an opponent:
"Thrusting my nose firmly between his teeth, I threw him heavily to the ground on top of me."

Fuzzy: "My Uncle Bill claims he has the laziest rooster in the world."

Harold: "What does he mean by that?"

Fuzzy: "He never crows, but waits until some other rooster crows, and then nods his head."

Sweet Young Thing: "Sorry, I don't go out with perfect strangers."

Benny: "That's all right--I'm not perfect!"

Arlene: "I saw you winking at a girl on the corner the other day."

Vernie: "I wasn't winking. That's a busy corner and something got in my eye."

Arlene: "I noticed she got in your car, too."

Douglas: "Your eyes fascinate me. I see dew in them."
Marlys I.: "Unpucker your lips, big boy. That isn't 'do' you see. That's 'don't'!"

ACTIVITIES

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music department this year, has really been kept busy. We've had a good band, which helped out for many programs. I think everyone enjoys hearing them play.

Much to our regret, our glee clubs have decreased in number; probably not in volume, however!

Archer was represented very well at our state preliminary contest for solo & small groups at Rock Rapids. Ratings on the 21 entries were two I's and twelve II's.

The two I ratings went on to the State Music Contest at Perry, Iowa. The returns from this contest were that both contestants; Gloria Stofferan with her vocal solo, "Beside Still Waters", and Joan Shultz with her piano-solo, "The Cat and Mouse" received II ratings which we all feel is work well done.

The Band attended an O'Brien County Band Festival at Primghar at which all had a good time, playing in a 250 piece band.

The music department also presented a fine operetta, entitled the "Sunbonnet Girl". Every one worked hard on this, and it went over "with a bang".

Our special thanks go to Miss Dornbusch for working so hard with every one, and Mrs. Youngers as President of the Band Boosters for securing new music and co-operating with us in every way.

Our large group music contest at Sutherland was a success also. Our Band received a I rating and our Girl's Glee Club and Mixed Chorus received II's. There is no preliminary state contest for large groups.

April 10 our band marched at Sheldon for a marching band festival. Although our band received no rating everyone had a rather cold, but good time. We also had the chance to march at the Tulip Festival in Orange City on May 17. Arlene Nieuwenhuis was our Drum Majorette this year, and she did the job nicely.

Murder on a High Note

Bob: "I heard you singing this morning."

Karen: "Oh, I was just singing to kill time."

Bob: "Well, you certainly had a good weapon."

Wedding Wit

Mother and daughter were busy with the wedding plans.

"We have so much to do", said Sadie, "we must not forget the most insignificant detail."

Mrs. Te Paske: "Oh, don't worry about him--he'll be there."

SOCIAL NEWS

The Sophomores gave an Initiation Party for the Freshmen, Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, 1951. The girls wore 4-buckle overshoes, gunny sacks and men's shirts backwards with onions around their necks. The boys wore gunny sacks and also onions. The entire High School was invited and everyone had an enjoyable time. A delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

The losers of the magazine subscription contest gave the winners a theater party at Paullina. Marlys Idso and Arlin Harms acted as captains of the two teams and Terry Harkins was the Business Manager. Refreshments were served after the movie with the Curtis Publishing Company furnishing the ice cream.

The A. H. S. students spread cheer the night of the Christmas Party by singing carols at several homes in Archer. They then returned to the school to open gifts and play games. The Seniors served us a delicious & appetizing lunch in the gayly decorated gym.

February 13, the Juniors sponsored a gym party. Many kinds of entertainment were available, including relays, basketball, and games, after which lunch was served. We enjoyed the evening very much, Juniors.

On April 16 the Freshmen gave the High School a movie party. A bus trip took us to Sibley where the movie, "The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady" was enjoyed by all. We returned to the school house where lunch was served.

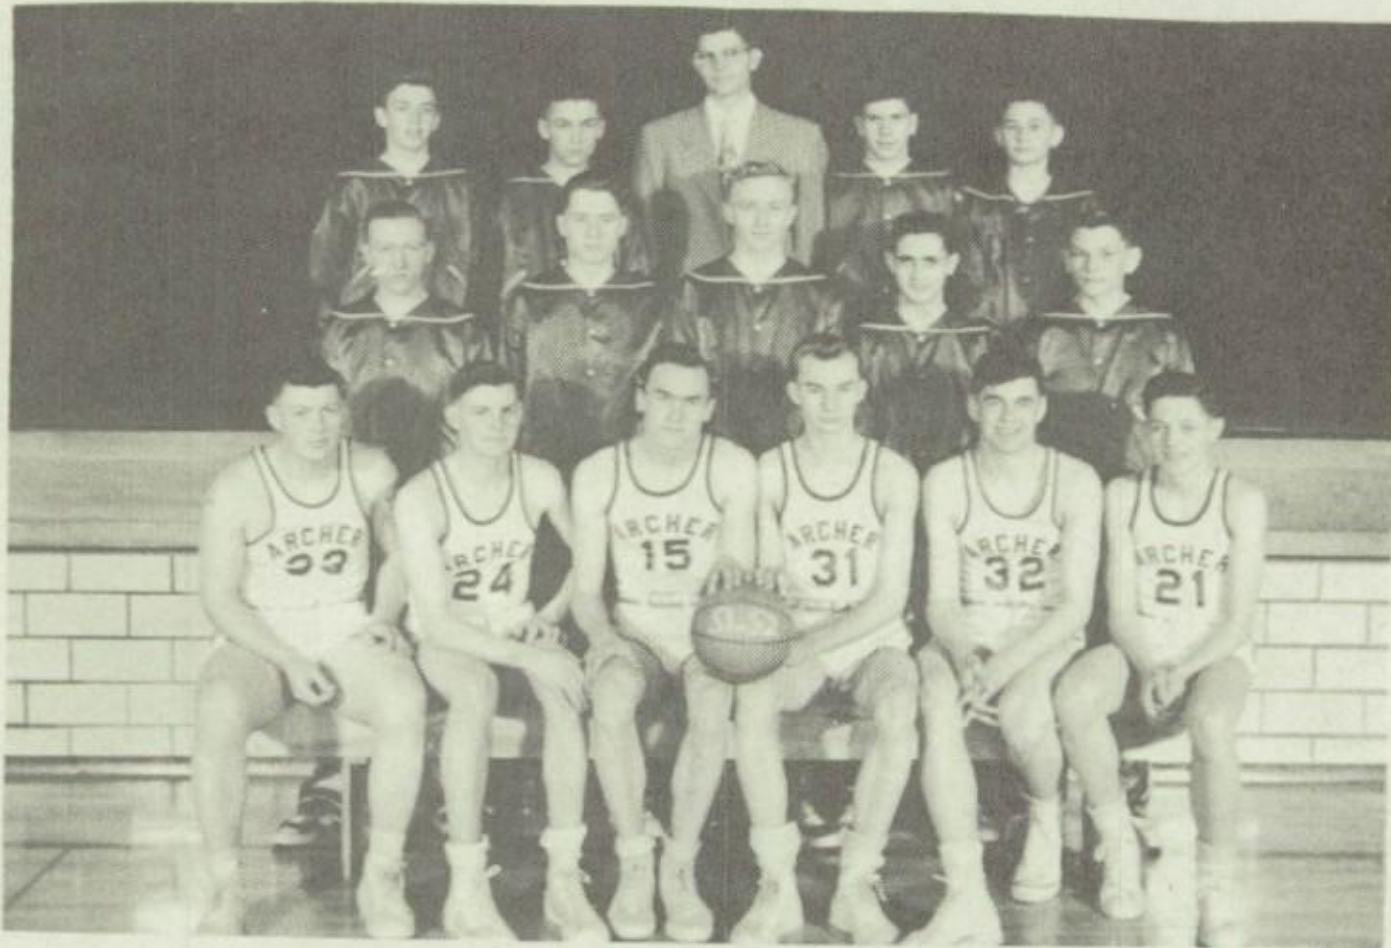

The Parkinson's presented a very educational program last Fall. This is an annual program. Mr. Parkinson, who originated the program, performed this year.

BANQUET REVIEW

Basketball Banquet - The basketball players and cheerleaders were entertained by their mothers at a lovely banquet this spring. Miniature cheerleaders decorated the tables. Movies were enjoyed in the latter part of the evening. The dinner was delicious! Thank you, Mothers, for a swell evening.

Junior-Senior Banquet - The Seniors were honored at a fine banquet on May 7. "Moonlight and Roses" was the well-thought-out theme. Decorations were in Wine and White, the class colors. A delicious meal was served after which we all enjoyed Mr. Brooks from Minnesota, a notable magician.

FIRST GRADE

We began our year with twelve children, seven boys and five girls in our room. We gained and lost Linda Linda Orvik in a six weeks period.

Our unit studies began with a Platter Party. We played records and dramatized them. We also studied seeds and leaves.

Etiquette Town was another name for our room. We practiced good manners in eating and playing.

Shortly after Christmas vacation we studied about the Grocery store. We also enjoyed eating a breakfast in school after we had completed our study of Breakfasts.

In February we made valentine animals which we used in our Pet Parade.

During our last week and a half, we enjoyed a Circus Unit.

SECOND GRADE

When we started the year there were only 10 of us, but within a week we had a newcomer, Lois Louderback.

We celebrated all the main holidays with a party, birthday parties, and also two parties as the result of everyone earning 100 per cent in two spelling tests.

During the Christmas Season we took the part of the Dream Chorus in the operetta "Red Candles".

During February we studied about the Post Office and also made one of our own.

We kept a weather chart for two months which was connected with our Weather Unit in Science class.

One month we had the most number of parents at P.T.A. and for our dollar we bought an "Alice in Wonderland" book.

THIRD GRADE

We began our year with seven boys and eight girls in our class. On September 12 Eldon Louderback joined our group.. This left us with an even number of boys and girls until January when Juanita Maranelli moved.

We learned many new things this year. In Arithmetic we learned how to borrow in subtraction problems, how to multiply and divide. English classes were devoted mainly to the study of sentences.

Among our units of study this year was the Indian unit and the Plant unit.

In connection with our Weekly Readers we joined Oscar's Good American Club. We tried every day to be worthy members of our club.

FOURTH GRADE

We fourth-graders have done interesting work this year. As the year began, we were fifteen strong.

One of the first things we did this school year was to make an Eskimo mural on the black-board. Then our climate changed after a few weeks and we made a mural about Bungo, a Malayan boy.

Outstanding knowledge we gained during the year was as follows: 1. Writing business letters 2. Learning the 5 senses 3. Rotation of the Earth 4. Outlines 5. Care of the Teeth 6. Fractions 7. Study of Birds These are just a few of our topics of study; to list them all, would take too much time and space.

However, now that our fifth-grade preparation is completed, we are looking forward to a successful year as fifth-graders.

FIFTH GRADE

Among some of the projects in our room this year was our puppet show. Each one of us made a puppet and dressed it.

In English class we talked and wrote about our hobbies. We decided to take our hobbies to school and have an exhibit. Each one of us told something about our hobbies.

One of the things we did in history was to make a display showing the different kinds of transportation.

We made several murals in geography class. One of the murals showed the United States' possessions.

Some of the grades came to see us make our puppets as we made them move and talk. We presented the play; "Mr. Wiggs' Birthday Party" taken from our reading books. It seemed that everyone enjoyed this entertainment. One afternoon we gave a tea party for our mothers and gave the play for them.

SIXTH GRADE

The sixth grade came to school in the fall of 1951 to a new experience. The sixth grade was now departmentalized. Instead of one teacher they had three or four. Mr. Good was named their room sponsor.

Stanley Wilkens was elected President, Warner Bonderman; Vice President, Larry Lee Bruggom; Treasurer, and Douglas Morfitt; Secretary.

In October the Junior High had a Halloween party. The Jr. High was invited by the sixth grade to a skating party in Sheldon.

Mr. Good cooked the oyster stew for our next party which was in April.

SEVENTH GRADE

We started school on Sept. 3, 1951 with 14 members in our class.

We really learned a lot in this grade this year. They say 7th grade is one of the hardest grades, but it seems that we will all be able to go to the Eighth Grade next year for our last step in the elementary grades.

In History we studied the development of our country.

In the first semester we had Science, studied the earth and its make-up. The last semester we had health, and studied how to take care of our bodies.

In Arithmetic we really advanced, had to make scale drawings of the schoolhouse.

Our grade was hit hard with common diseases this year. Henry Wagenaar, the poor fellow, had a vacation for two weeks; how lucky can a person be!

Hope to see you next year.

EIGHTH GRADE

On Sept. 3, 1951, the eighth grade enrollment was 23 strong. This was one in addition to our former number--Sheryl Storms came from the country school. It seemed though, that our class could not remain that large. The first ones to leave us were the Pederson children, Clair and Carol. The next member our class to leave was Bill Harkin, who moved to South Dakota.

This year we studied how our Government functions. We studied the qualifications of a good citizen, his rights and duties.

In History we made a scrap book, over the five regions in the U. S.

This year the boys took Industrial Arts. There we made very useful projects and enjoyed it. The girls took Home Ec and made food for themselves and their mothers.

Next year we look forward to entering High School.
